

Commercial/Market Based Approaches to Impact Intervention

University of Texas – Austin
January 14, 2022

Samuel Greenberg
Ruth Madrigal
John Tyler

DISCLAIMER

The following information is not intended to be “written advice concerning one or more Federal tax matters” subject to the requirements of section 10.37(a)(2) of Treasury Department Circular 230.

The information contained herein is of a general nature and based on authorities that are subject to change. Applicability of the information to specific situations should be determined through consultation with your tax adviser.

This presentation is provided solely for the purposes of enhancing knowledge; it does not take into account any specific taxpayer’s facts and circumstances. It is not intended, and should not be relied upon, as tax, accounting, or legal advice. Ernst & Young LLP, KPMG, and the Kauffman Foundation (“Firms”) expressly disclaim any liability in connection with the use of this presentation or its contents by any third party.

Neither the Firms nor any member firm thereof shall bear any responsibility whatsoever for the content, accuracy, or security of any third-party websites that are linked (by way of hyperlink or otherwise) in this presentation.

The views expressed by individual presenters are not necessarily those of the Firms or other associated companies or organizations.

AGENDA

- Why commercial/market interventions matter for social impact
- Where the interventions fit along the spectrum of available charitable activities
- What tools are available for such interventions
- How these interventions comport with the regulatory landscape
- What other considerations, including common pitfalls, should you be aware of

Why/How Commercial/Market Interventions Matter – Social Impact

- Leverage other charitable resources
- Leverage for-profit and government resources
- Position social impact efforts for sustainability and scale
- Expand knowledge of and attention to underlying social problems and potential ways to address them

Why/How Commercial/Market Interventions Matter – Social Impact (cont.)

- Tools can complement traditional charitable efforts
- Tools can take advantage of different incentives and align them to social impact
- Tools can recirculate funds for re-deployment to charitable purposes
- Tools can facilitate compliance obligations, especially regarding private benefit

Who Can Use These Commercial/Market Interventions?

- Donor Advised Funds
- Private Foundations
- Public Charities
- Social Welfare Organizations
- Limited Liability Companies

Find the full text of this and thousands of other resources from leading experts in dozens of legal practice areas in the UT Law CLE eLibrary \(utcle.org/elibrary\)

Title search: Commercial/Market Based Approaches to Impact Intervention

Also available as part of the eCourse

2022 Nonprofit Organizations eConference

First appeared as part of the conference materials for the

39th Annual Nonprofit Organizations Institute session

"Commercial/Market Based Approaches to Impact Intervention"