

Paralegal Ethics Quiz

True or False?

1

1. A paralegal may use business cards, with or without a job title included.

2

1. A paralegal may use business cards, with or without a job title included.

False. The business card must indicate clearly the status of the individual as a paralegal.

2. A paralegal's name cannot be included in the law firm letterhead.

2. A paralegal's name cannot be included in the law firm letterhead.

False – as long as the paralegal title is included along with a statement that the person is not licensed to practice law.

3. A paralegal may represent a client in court in Texas.

Find the full text of this and thousands of other resources from leading experts in dozens of legal practice areas in the UT Law CLE eLibrary \(utcle.org/elibrary\)

Title search: Job Duties: Ethical Challenges in the Attorney-Paralegal Relationship

Also available as part of the eCourse

eSupplement to the 33rd Annual Entertainment Law Institute

First appeared as part of the conference materials for the 2022 First Friday Ethics (June 2022) session

"Job Duties: Ethical Challenges in the Attorney-Paralegal Relationship"