Being Sisyphus:

The Moral Tribulations of Agency Counsel

Let us pity the beleaguered agency counsel, beset on all sides with demanders, detractors and moral conundrums. Between the People, the Legislature, the "Boss" and Rule 1.12, who is the client and where lies loyalty and obligation anyway? Who owns the privilege of confidentiality when the Legislature—or a prosecutor—comes sniffing around? Once agency counsel has told his/her fellow employees what the law might or might not say, what more is to be made of that "special obligation for the quality of justice" that the Bar rules so ominously hint at?

REMARKS FROM ATTENDEES OF THE SEMINAR

Program topics are on point with great course materials.

The amount of credit and ethics hours is a great value!

This is the best administrative law conference! Keep doing what you're doing - it is well-organized, well-paced and well done. The hard work shows!

Best selection of topics of any administrative law seminar that I have attended.

I like the variety and quality of the subject matter and speakers.

This conference has the best ethics presentations that I have seen and participated in during the 25 years I have been licensed.

The topics and presentations ran a good spectrum of practical to digging deep on special topics.

The speakers are excellent and their experience and abilities make the difference for this advanced course.

Thank you for UT Law CLE's contribution to the administrative law practice.

As always, topics are interesting and informative. The speakers are knowledgeable and well-prepared.

Informative program. This is probably the best one I've attended.

The written materials are great.
