Navigating Your Licensing Case Pre-SOAH

Have you ever regretted not pursuing an action or negotiation prior to SOAH? Have you ever thought there might be alternative ways to settle your case prior to SOAH that no one ever uses? And was there ever a time you wished you would have worked-up your licensing case during the agency's investigation instead of after the SOAH complaint filing? This presentation's goal is to alleviate these concerns and answer these questions.

Franklin Hopkins, Germer Beaman & Brown PLLC, Austin, TX

LUNCHEON PRESENTATION

12:30 p.m. 1.00 hr

Agency Spotlight: State Office of Administrative Hearings

SOAH is entering the 21st Century. Explore upcoming changes in document management, case assignments, and procedural rules, and find out what lessons SOAH's coronavirus response has taught us about remote hearings.

Hon. Kristofer S. Monson, State Office of Administrative Hearings, Austin, TX
Hon. Victor John Simonds, State Office of Administrative Hearings, Austin, TX
Shane Linkous, State Office of Administrative Hearings, Austin, TX

1:30 p.m. 5-Minute Break

1:35 p.m. .50 hr

Introduction to the Office of the Governor's Regulatory Compliance Division

The Regulatory Compliance Division conducts an independent review of certain state licensing agencies' proposed rules that affect market competition. Authorized by the legislature in response to the United States Supreme Court's decision in North Carolina State Board of Dental Examiners v. FTC, the division provides the "active supervision" needed over rulemakings so that state boards controlled by active market participants can invoke state-action antitrust immunity. Explore the background, procedures, and work of the division since its establishment in 2019.

Erin Bennett, Office of the Governor, Austin, TX

2:05 p.m. 5-Minute Break

2:10 p.m. .50 hr

Rulemaking: Governor Abbott's Participation in the Process

Governor Abbott unilaterally asserts control over all rulemaking by state agencies. Such power is exercised wholly in private. Constitutional?

Ron Beal, Baylor Law School, Waco, TX

2:40 p.m. 5-Minute Break

2:45 p.m. 1.00 hr

REASONS TO ATTEND

The Advanced Texas Administrative Law Seminar virtually brings together members of the judiciary, regulatory, and academic communities to engage with practitioners about the latest legislative and case law updates, rule changes, and other timely topics. This year's highlights include:

- Updates on significant administrative law cases and legislative activity during the last year, Open Government decisions, and the Texas Identity Theft and Protection Act.
- Overview of Sunset process and a preview of upcoming reviews.
- Tips on filing, presenting, and resolving your case before SOAH, and giving effective arguments.
- The always popular unscripted round-robin discussion during the Judicial Panel, including a Q&A for attendees.
- 2.25 hours of ethics, including presentations on How to Ethically Build Diverse Relationships in the Legal Profession, Both Sides Now: When Lawyers Go Too Far, and Tips and Strategies for Settling Multi-Party Matters.

UT Law CLE is committed to helping attorneys meet their annual Texas MCLE requirements. Following the event, live webcast customers will receive a free, on-demand eSupplement that will bring their total available hours to 15.00, including 3.00 hours of ethics.

UT Law CLE is committed to Practice Excellence.

We are here to support our community while we navigate the coronavirus pandemic together. Information and updates regarding our in-person conferences and live webcasts will be posted at www.utcle.org.

In addition, we continue to offer multiple educational opportunities online—both live and on-demand—by bringing practitioners together virtually. We are fortunate to serve so many of you who strive for excellence in the practice of law.
