6:00 pm

John C. Akard Lecture Delivered by Sarah Worthington

Professor Sarah Worthington QC (Hon) FBA is the Downing Professor of the Laws of England, University of Cambridge, and Co-Director of the Cambridge Private Law Centre. Her main research interests are in commercial equity and corporate law, especially secured financing and governance issues. She is a Bencher of Middle Temple, barrister of South Square, Gray's Inn, Member of Council of the British Academy and a Panel Member of PRIME Finance. She has held visiting appointments in Africa, Australia, Europe and Hong Kong, and has worked with law reform bodies in the UK, Europe and Australia, including serving as a member of the Advisory Council for the Study Group for a European Civil Code, consultant to the UK Law Commission, and member of working groups of the Bank of England Financial Markets Law Committee and the UK Company Law Review.

Professor Worthington's Akard Lecture is entitled "Lessons from Lehman: Persistent Problems in Secured Lending."

The John C. Akard Distinguished Lectureship Program was endowed by the generous gifts of many members of the Texas bankruptcy bar in honor of Judge John C. Akard (retired), a 1957 UT Law graduate who served with great distinction for 14 years as the U.S. Bankruptcy Judge in the Northern District of Texas, sitting in Lubbock and throughout much of West Texas. The first Akard Lecture was delivered in 2001 by Professor Elizabeth Warren of Harvard Law School, and formerly of The University of Texas School of Law.

Sarah Worthington, Downing Professor of the Laws of England; Director of the LL.M. Course , University of Cambridge - Cambridge, United Kingdom

9:00 am 2.75 hrs	ABI Commission to Study the Reform of Chapter 11, Field Hearing The American Bankruptcy Institute's Commission to Study the Reform of Chapter 11 was established in 2012 to comprehensively investigate the need for modernization in the U.S. law of corporate reorganization. The 20 members of the Commission have held more than a dozen field hearings around the country, hearing from experts in law, finance, the judiciary and academia. The records from these proceedings are found at www.commission.abi.org. More than 130 other top professionals are serving on advisory committees, studying topical areas and reporting back recommendations for reform. The Commission's final report will be transmitted to Congress in December 2014. At this hearing during the Westbrook Bankruptcy conference, panels of experts address policy issues important to Texas practitioners, including fundamental bankruptcy jurisdiction and venue.
