REASONS TO ATTEND

UT Law's 38th Annual Jay L. Westbrook Bankruptcy Conference is one of the premier bankruptcy programs in the nation. The conference attracts a stellar national faculty of prominent judges, academics, and practitioners. Program highlights:

- This year, the perennial favorite Recent Developments will have two sessions: Professor Jay L. Westbrook will lead the opening session to discuss the year's most important cases, and then Friday afternoon, Debbie Langehennig leads a panel for an in-depth look at the best and worst of the cases.
- Select from Thursday afternoon concurrent tracks:
 - o The Business Track includes discussions on recidivist debtors, modifying labor and retirement obligations in bankruptcy, utilizing and interpreting make whole provisions, rights offerings, and the drivers of the recent turmoil in the retail industry.
 - o The Consumer Track explores the ABI Consumer Commission Report, litigation in consumer cases, discharging IRS debt, and practical considerations for consumer attorneys.
- Have a question for the judges? Friday morning, Judges Davis, Isgur, Jernigan and Parker will be ready to answer them! Submit questions in advance to conferenceQA@utcle.org.
- Gain insight on the use of arbitration in bankruptcy; health care bankruptcies; unique aspects of chapter 11 cases triggered by sexual abuse tort claims; the contours of ethical negotiations, illegal extortion, and bankruptcy bribery; and much more.

Also, enjoy interacting and networking with judges, trustees, and practitioners at Thursday Evening's Jay L. Westbrook Bankruptcy Reception.
