8:30 am 3.50 hrs	How to Manage Conflict and Confrontation Today's workers face greater—and potentially riskier—challenges than ever before. Opposing points of view, coupled with high levels of stress, can lead to anger, conflict, and confrontation between people, both at work and home. Assess your own personal attitudes and better understand the negative impact of self-destructive behaviors. Discover how to build successful relationships, resulting in increased trust, harmony, and teamwork. Gain strategies for remaining calm, clear-headed, and positive in the face of the most difficult circumstances or challenges. Learn proven methods to communicate and resolve conflicts with no "losers." Includes a 15-minute break at 10:15 a.m. Carl Flowers, Fred Pryor Seminars - Overland Park, KS
