The State(s) of U.S. Privacy Law

Unlike the European Union and other jurisdictions, the U.S. has a sectoral approach to data privacy law with no comprehensive data privacy framework in sight. This presentation discusses the latest developments in U.S. privacy law including the California Privacy Rights Act, Virginia Consumer Data Protection Act, and the many states that have proposed similar legislation. It also provides tips for keeping up with the shifting sands of U.S. privacy law and developing a sustainable compliance program.

Emerging, Disruptive and Game-Changing Technology

Technology is changing how we do business, and even re-defining what business is or can be. It is changing at an ever increasing rate of speed in almost every sector of society, from the personal to the professional. With every advancement comes opportunity, disruption, risk, security issues, and privacy concerns. Often, we focus on the technology of today, failing to look ahead to where technology might advance tomorrow. Hear more on expectant emerging technologies including decentralized finance, encryption, artificial intelligence, blockchain, alternative transactions, smart contracts, and edge computing.

ACTION THROUGH EDUCATION

Our efforts for real change against racism.

Learn how we as lawyers can join the fight against racial injustice.

Visit www.utcle.org for more.

UT Law CLE is committed to Practice Excellence.

We are here to support our community while we navigate the coronavirus pandemic together. Information and updates regarding our in-person conferences and live webcasts will be posted at www.utcle.org.

In addition, we continue to offer multiple educational opportunities online—both live and on-demand—by bringing practitioners together virtually. We are fortunate to serve so many of you who strive for excellence in the practice of law.
