Presiding Officer:

Leslie C. Thorne, Haynes and Boone, LLP - Austin, TX

12:30 pm 0.75 hr	Emerging, Disruptive and Game-Changing Technology Technology is changing how we do business, and even re-defining what business is or can be. It is changing at an ever increasing rate of speed in almost every sector of society, from the personal to the professional. With every advancement comes opportunity, disruption, risk, security issues, and privacy concerns. Often, we focus on the technology of today, failing to look ahead to where technology might advance tomorrow. Hear more on expectant emerging technologies including decentralized finance, encryption, artificial intelligence, blockchain, alternative transactions, smart contracts, and edge computing.
