| 1:15 pm 0.75 hr | Medicaid for Kids Get an overview of Medicaid programs for minors in Texas, includes challenges, strategies and planning opportunities. Christina Leshner, The Law Office of Christina Leshner, PC - Houston, TX |
| 2:00 pm 0.50 hr | Distributions from SNTs: What is Allowed and When? A major and very important duty of a SNT trustee is to administer the trust in a way that does not interfere with the trust beneficiary's eligibility for public benefits. This program will discuss (1) considerations to evaluate each distribution request; (2) many examples as to how you may and may not use the SNT to provide for the beneficiary; and (3) some alternatives to consider. Lori Lynn Noack-May, Cadence Bank, NA - Houston, TX |
| 2:30 pm 0.50 hr | Lawyers and Ombudsmen - Advocating Together for Residents' Rights As required by the Older Americans Act, each state has a Long-Term Care Ombudsman Program (LTCOP) that addresses complaints and advocates for improvements in the long-term care system. The Texas Long-Term Care Ombudsman Program, which is independent within the Texas Health and Human Services Commission, works to improve the quality of life and care for residents of nursing and assisted living facilities by providing prompt, informal complaint resolution and promoting systemic change on behalf of residents' interests. Explore how lawyers and ombudsmen can advocate for long-term care facility residents' rights. Suzanne Mitchell, JD, Nursing Home Policy Specialist, Office of the State Long-Term Care Ombudsman, Texas Health and Human Services - Austin, TX |
| 3:00 pm 0.50 hr | Health Care Public Policy Issues Hear a highlight of the latest public health policy issues, including HHS Religious Freedoms for Healthcare Workers; Surprise Bills from Out of Network Providers; Prescription Crises: Not Just Costs Anymore; and Texas Health Care Bills of Note.
