11:15 am 0.75 hr 0.25 hr ethics	Anti-SLAPP Case Study: Dealing with Defamation, Business Disparagement, and Social Media Using a recent case, explore the business disparagement claims asserted against a prosthodontist and his dental practice, and the subsequent dismissal of these claims with a Chapter 27 Anti-SLAPP Motion to Dismiss. Stemming from a series of Instagram live videos, Kenneth Wilstead a/k/a “Dr. Kenny Smiles” sued Dr. Ortiz for business disparagement and invasion of privacy. However, using publicly available information, Wilstead’s claims were rebutted by informing the court of a likely and entirely unrelated basis for why Wilstead’s business had declined: his character and practices had been called into question by certain of his current and prospective female patients. Laura K. Lavernia, Bell Nunnally & Martin LLP - Dallas, TX Brent A. Turman, Bell Nunnally & Martin LLP - Dallas, TX
