

7th Annual Family Law On The Front Lines
June 28-29, 2007 • Moody Gardens • Galveston, TX
June 28-29, 2007 • • Galveston,

Thursday Morning, June 28, 2007

9:00 am In Galveston Only 1.00 hr	Sex, Lies and the Internet An indepth look at the benefits and pitfalls associated with electronic evidence, computers and the internet. An examination of how it may affect a family law case and the possible criminal implications associated with certain behavior. A discussion will ensue which will provide different perspectives from a family law attorney, a psychologist and from a family law judge. J. Randall Price, J. Randall Price, Ph.D - Richardson, TX Diana S. Friedman, Diana S Friedman PC - Dallas, TX Christopher Martin Lake, Bruneman, Lake & Griffin, LLP - Dallas, TX David Anthony Lopez, Dallas, TX
10:00 am In Galveston Only 1.50 hrs 0.25 hr ethics	Presenting a Domestic Violence Case to the Court This presentation will take you from your first meeting with a client to trial with a focus on gathering and presenting evidence that is compelling to the court. Jeana Lungwitz, Domestic Violence Clinic - Austin, TX
10:30 am	Break Break
10:45 am In Galveston Only 0.75 hr	"I Plead the Fifth" — When Family Law Becomes Criminal This presentation will include suggestions on how to represent a client facing a family violence accusation; what a family law attorney should know about digital or computer-generated evidence, telecommunication and computer crimes; plus, practical tips on how to murder your spouse and avoid indictment—ten best res gestae statements. E. X. Martin III, Attorney at Law - Dallas, TX
11:30 am In Galveston Only 0.50 hr	Appellate Deadlines—Timing and Post Trial Relief Basic appellate information useful to the family law practitioner, including the types of relief available in most family law cases, standards of review, timelines and the importance of preserving the record. Heather Leah King, The King Firm - Fort Worth, TX

Thursday Afternoon, June 28, 2007

12:15 pm In Galveston Only 0.75 hr	Creative Presentation of a Family Law Case Demonstrative evidence presentation. Thomas P. Goranson, Goranson, Bain, Larsen, Greenwald, Mault - Dallas, TX Kathryn L. Pruitt, Webb, Voyles & Pruitt, P.C. - Dallas, TX
1:15 pm In Galveston Only 0.75 hr	How to Effectively Cross Examine a Psychologist Preparing for the cross examination of a court appointed mental health expert; including what to look for in the report and how to interpret the testing. Jonathan W. Gould, Jonathan W. Gould, Ph.D., ABPP, Forensic Psychological Services - Charlotte, NC Lynn Kamin, Jenkins & Kamin LLP - Houston, TX
2:00 pm In Galveston Only 0.50 hr	Spousal Maintenance and Alimony - What They Are and What They Aren't Spousal maintenance and alimony are simply not the same creature. This presentation will discuss the differences between the two, especially with regards to drafting and enforcement, and outline why the difference is so important. Angela G. Pence England, Tindall & England, PC - Houston, TX
2:30 pm	Break Break
2:45 pm In Galveston Only 0.50 hr	Divorce Calculations and How to Present Them to the Trier of Fact A discussion of the steps involved in performing certain calculations that are common in divorces involving both modest and large estates. Electronic tools and templates created to perform the calculations will be provided by request. Haran Levy CPA, UHY Advosros FLVA, Inc. - Houston, TX
3:15 pm In Galveston Only 0.50 hr	How to Find Property Issues in the Wind, the Rain, and the Ground In addition to oil and gas royalty income, an emerging source of royalty and revenue are found in wind turbines and water reservoirs on private lands. This presentation explores the rights of property owners and spouses and methods for evaluation and division of mineral, water and wind farm assets. Issues of characterization and evaluation are also addressed. Ann Eileen Coover, Coover & Coover - Corpus Christi, TX
3:45 pm In Galveston Only 1.00 hr	Words from the Wise Thomas L. Ausley, Ausley, Algert, Robertson & Flores, L.L. - Austin, TX Wendy S. Burgower, Burgower & Rainwater, LLP - Houston, TX Moderator: Warren Cole, The Law Office Of Warren Cole - Houston, TX Katherine Anne Kinser, Kinser & Bates, L.L.P. - Dallas, TX James M. Loveless, Fort Worth, TX

Friday Morning, June 29, 2007

9:00 am In Galveston Only 1.00 hr 0.50 hr ethics	Representing the Difficult Client A panel discussion on the ethical and legal issues relating to problem client such as: a client with a lack of mental capacity; addicted client; abusive client, etc.; how to identify the client; what are your obligations as the attorney; how do you defend the bad facts in court; and how can you zealously advocate for a client you do not believe in. Joan Anderson, Texian Management Assoc Inc. - Houston, TX Thomas L. Ausley, Ausley, Algert, Robertson & Flores, L.L. - Austin, TX Warren Cole, The Law Office Of Warren Cole - Houston, TX
10:00 am In Galveston Only 0.50 hr	Calculating Net Resources Without a W-2 This session focuses on the ways to find the true "income" of obligors in non-traditional jobs such as partnerships, closely held business owners, trust fund babies, professionals, and athletes. The need to focus on alternative sources of "salary" such as dividends, distributions, bonuses, and deferred compensation and how to use these sources to make a net resource calculation is also included. Bryan C. Rice, Hartman Leito & Bolt, LLP - Ft. Worth, TX
10:30 am	Break Break
10:45 am In Galveston Only 0.75 hr 0.25 hr ethics	Asserting and Overcoming Hearsay Objections in the Electronic Age Sydney A. Beckman, Charleston School of Law - Charleston, SC
11:30 am In Galveston Only 0.50 hr	Understanding Corporate Benefits A comprehensive review of the characterization, valuation and diversion of employee benefits. Randall B. Wilhite, Fullenweider & Wilhite, L.L.P. - Houston, TX

Friday Afternoon, June 29, 2007

12:15 pm In Galveston Only 0.75 hr	Are You Smart Enough to be a Family Law Attorney? While other game shows may ask contestants to prove they are smarter than a fifth grader, we'll be calling upon contestants from the audience to answer questions about things that every family lawyer should know. Answer the questions correctly and win "fabulous" prizes. Get the answer wrong and end having to admit that your aren't smart enough to be a family law attorney. Karl E. Hays, Law Offices Of Karl E. Hays - Austin, TX William D. Powers, Law Offices Of William D Powers - Austin, TX James A. Vaught, McCullar Vaught, P.C.. - Austin, TX Warren Lloyd Vavra, Court Administrators Office - Austin, TX
---	---

1:15 pm In Galveston Only 0.75 hr	Presenting an Economic Contribution or Reimbursement Claim at Trial Practical tips for preparing, presenting and proving reimbursement and economic contribution claims at trial. Janet McCullar Vavra, McCullar Vaught, P.C. - Austin, TX
2:00 pm In Galveston Only 0.50 hr	ERISA Beyond Child Support — Creative Use of the QDRO Angela Melina Raab, Austin, TX
2:30 pm	Break Break
2:45 pm In Galveston Only 0.50 hr	Top Ten Evidentiary Issues in Family Law What the family lawyer must know to get it in or keep it out! Barbara D. Nunneley, Nunneley Family Law Center - Hurst, TX
3:15 pm In Galveston Only 1.00 hr	Overruled - A View From the Bench Barbara D. Nunneley, Nunneley Family Law Center - Hurst, TX Panelists: Hon. John K. Dietz, Travis County Courthouse - Austin, TX Panelists: Marilea Whatley Lewis, 330th Judicial District Court - Dallas, TX Panelists: Hon. Judy L. Warne, 257th Judicial District Court - Houston, TX Panelists: Sandra Lee Watts, 117th District Court - Corpus Christi, TX