Presiding Officer:

Jerry A. Bell Jr., Fulbright & Jaworski L.L.P. - Houston, TX

8:30 am 1.00 hr	Managed Care Issues Managed care is not what it used to be. What health care lawyers of the 1990s understood to be managed care has morphed into something with quite different implications for providers, patients, and employers. This topic will discuss the direction of managed care and the legal implications for all parties dealing with health care insurers and their ancillary retinue. The speaker will discuss tiered networks, fee-for-service negotiations, hospital contracting, and other new topics in managed care, as well as the status of managed care liability. Douglas Scott Clarkson, Dallas, TX David W. Hilgers, Brown McCarroll LLP - Austin, TX
9:30 am 0.00 hr 1.00 hr ethics	Corporate Governance and Ethics Issues in the Health Care Sector, Including NonProfits This session covers the evolving role and responsibilities of corporate counsel including the implications of the amendments to ABA's Model Rules of Professional Responsibility 1.6 and 1.13; and the reaction of states, i.e. Texas, to the amendments as well as Section 307 of Sarbanes-Oxley, including a "decision tree" summary of the "reporting up" and "reporting out" rules for use in daily practice. The session concludes with a discussion of the application of the ABA's Model Corporate Governance "Best Practices," as they relate to the role of the general counsel within the context of a (for-profit or nonprofit) health care system. Michael W. Peregrine, McDermott Will & Emery - Chicago, IL
