REASONS TO ATTEND IMMIGRATION LAW CONFERENCE

In a constantly changing political climate, navigating the law is more important than ever. UT Law CLE's 48th Annual Conference on Immigration and Nationality Law is ideal for practitioners of all experience levels and provides an opportunity to learn from nationally recognized experts.

The 2-day program offers in-depth discussion on issues at the forefront of immigration practice and provides tools, forms, tips, and guidance on key decision points, including the increasing importance of removal and relief from removal. Gain strategies to provide the best advocacy for your clients while protecting yourself and your practice.

2024 highlights include:

- Understanding United States Immigration and Nationality Laws provides explanations of concepts including unlawful presence, out of status and nonimmigrant intent, and more
- Under the CEAC: Navigating the Choppy Waters of the NVC, explores the National Visa Center's role in consular processing cases and provides insights on effectively communicating with the agency
- Hear updates on executive initiatives and other national developments
- Coverage of consular issues, crimmigration, unusual occupations for business, how to address unexpected surprises in your AOS, trends in U and T visas, and much more
- Interact with faculty, fellow practitioners and pro bono organization representatives during Thursday's Networking Reception and Pro Bono Mixer.

UT Law CLE is committed to Practice Excellence.

We are here to support our community. Information and updates regarding our in-person conferences and live webcasts will be posted at www.utcle.org.

In addition, we continue to offer multiple educational opportunities online—both live and on-demand—by bringing practitioners together virtually. We are fortunate to serve so many of you who strive for excellence in the practice of law.
