9:30 am 0.75 hr	SB 1004 and Public Rights of Way An analysis of the 2017 Texas statute sharply curtailing municipal decision making authority as it regards wireless “network nodes” and other facilities (including poles and cables) in public rights of way (S.B. 1004, now chapter 284 of the Local Government Code) and including discussion of municipal ordinances and design manuals allowed under the new statute. Cathy Meyer Cunningham, Boyle &amp; Lowry - Irving, TX  Don Knight, Dallas City Attorneys Office - Dallas, TX
10:15 am	Break
10:30 am 0.50 hr	Annexation Update: Where Do We Go from Here? Since the creation of home rule cities in Texas more than 100 years ago, the process of municipal annexation has produced dynamic cities that are among the nation’s leaders in job creation and economic growth. During the 2017 session, legislation passed that allows unincorporated subdivisions to veto the annexation plans of cities in a county with a population of more than 500,000. The bill effectively freezes the current boundaries of those cities. Will this mark the beginning of a process of urban decline that doomed cities in other states? Come find out how the new legislation affects your city. Scott N. Houston, Texas Municipal League - Austin, TX
11:00 am 0.75 hr	Development Issues Outside Corporate Limits Development of land outside of corporate boundaries can involve jurisdictional conflicts between cities and counties. There also can be conflicts when city urban development standards are applied in a rural environment and development projects are started prior to annexation. Arthur J. Anderson, Winstead PC - Dallas, TX  Robert F. Brown, Brown &amp; Hofmeister, L.L.P. - Richardson, TX

11:45 am 0.50 hr	Takings Law: Determining the “Relevant Parcel” in Standard Taking Cases and Understanding When to Apply Heightened Scrutiny for Exactions Discuss the Supreme Court’s 2017 decision in Murr v. Wisconsin, announcing a multi-factor test for “determining the denominator;” and recent case law determining when to apply the “essential nexus” and “rough proportionality” standards pursuant to Koontz v. St. Johns River Water Management District. Rachael Anne Rawlins, University of Texas School of Architecture - Austin, TX
