4:00 pm In Austin Only 0.75 hr 0.50 hr ethics	Dysfunctional Family Limited Partnerships Family Limited Partnerships (FLPs) are one of the most popular tax and estate planning techniques used over the last few decades. When formed, internal conflicts are often not anticipated nor planned for. Nevertheless, FLPs represent real entities, and issues do arise in management, operations, distributions and withdrawals from these entities. In some cases, internal conflicts may even result in litigation. A discussion on the source of many conflicts and what lawyers can and probably should do to plan for them, including representation matters, ethical considerations and practical techniques for resolution of conflicts. Joel N. Crouch, Meadows, Collier, Reed, Cousins, Crouch & Ungerman, L.L.P. - Dallas, TX Alan K. Davis, Meadows, Collier, Reed, Cousins, Crouch & Ungerman, L.L.P. - Dallas, TX
