LUNCHEON PRESENTATION

11:50 am 1.00 hr ethics	Ethics of Multi-Party Representation: 2019 In business transactions, especially those involving LLCs and partnerships, the practical reality facing business attorneys involved in transactions is the ubiquity of ethical issues when representing multiple parties. Explore the thorny issues of multiple party representation. William D. Elliott, Elliott, Thomason & Gibson, LLP - Dallas, TX Karen L. Hart, Bell Nunnally & Martin LLP - Dallas, TX Co-Author: George W. Coleman, Bell Nunnally & Martin LLP - Dallas, TX
12:50 pm	Break
1:05 pm 1.25 hrs	Federal Tax Update Review legislative, judicial and IRS guidance over the past year as it impacts partnerships and LLCs with a focus on choice of entity, Section 199A deduction, examination provisions, new loss limitation rules and Section 1061 holding period requirements. William Paul Bowers, Norton Rose Fulbright - Dallas, TX Patrick L. O'Daniel, Norton Rose Fulbright - Austin, TX
2:20 pm 1.00 hr	Carrying On About Carried Interests Carried interests—also known as profits interests—have been used for decades to motivate and reward key employees, partners and members. The 2017 tax act makes significant changes to the way in which carried interests are taxed. Review current thinking on the use of carried interests, learn cutting-edge techniques for drafting carried interests, and analyze how carried interests are taxed. Dan G. Baucum, Daniel Baucum Law PLLC - Frisco, TX Commentator: William D. Elliott, Elliott, Thomason & Gibson, LLP - Dallas, TX

3:30 pm 0.50 hr	Qualified Opportunity Zones Tax reform brought us a new regime for tax-favored investments in qualified opportunity zones, and while the potential benefits are being referred to as “unprecedented,” the rules are still being written. Discuss those benefits, the requirements to obtain them, potential traps along the way, as well as remaining open questions. Christopher Alan Cunningham, Elliott, Thomason & Gibson, LLP - Dallas, TX Brandon S. Jones, Winstead PC - Fort Worth, TX Kevin Thomason, Elliott, Thomason & Gibson, LLP - Dallas, TX
4:00 pm 0.50 hr	Fundraising for LLCs and LPs: Securities Law Basics A practical discussion of securities law compliance issues, including when a membership or partnership interest is considered a security, and commonly used private offering exemptions. Shana McGirl, McGinnis Lochridge LLP - Austin, TX
4:30 pm 0.75 hr	The Texas Series LLC Turns 10: A Series of Remaining Questions and Updates on the New Uniform Protected Series Act and Changes in Delaware The Texas Series LLC is a great tool for specific situations, but practitioners should be wary of the continuing distinction between an entity and its series. A brief examination of remaining questions and issues practitioners should consider before using a series in Texas and how the series interacts with other areas of law. A Uniform Protected Series Act is making its way through the states and seeks to resolve several of the supposed weaknesses in series law. A brief examination of how Texas compares to the new model code and what practitioners may want to know as more states adopt it. Delaware now allows for the creation of a "registered series." An update for practitioners and a brief examination of whether this might be a solution for open questions in Texas. K. "Andy" Tiwari, Tiwari, PLLC - Helotes, TX
5:15 pm In Austin Only	Adjourn to reception Join us for drinks and hors d'oeuvres with program faculty and attendees.
