1:50 pm 0.50 hr	Property Code vs. Estates Code: Which is Appropriate When Creating Your SNT?  Holly J. Gilman, Gilman & Associates, P.C. - Austin, TX
2:20 pm 0.50 hr	Court Accountings for Trusts Established Under Chapter 1301 of the Texas Estates Code  Trusts established under Chapter 1301 of the Texas Estates Code generally require the filing of court accountings “in the same manner and form that is required of a guardian of the estate.” Understand the basic requirements of such accountings, including both annual and final accountings, as well as when to seek court permission in advance for unusual or large disbursements, rather than surprising the court at the time of the accounting. Are there situations where a court accounting is not required on a 1301 Trust? Is the cost and hassle of a court accounting a reason to consider alternatives to a 1301 Trust? And are there things that a trustee can do to make the court accounting process proceed in a cost-efficient and timely manner?  Scott Stebler, Stebler & Sulak, PLLC - Austin, TX Sarah Sulak, Stebler & Sulak, PLLC - Austin, TX
2:50 pm 0.75 hr	Maintaining SSI Eligibility Once the SNT is Created  Mission control: We have a trust! And the beneficiary has certain disabilities. How do you maintain eligibility and still provide quality of life distributions? Explore best practices and strategies for you and your client, including an initial meeting to set goals and control expectations, documenting the file with court orders and agency correspondence regarding payment of subrogation liens, obtaining a copy of the notice of change of circumstance (e.g., existence of a trust) that was filed with the relevant agencies, tips for establishing “safety nets” prior to reporting, sample notice language, potential distributions, and much more.  Patricia F. Sitchler, The Law Office of Patricia Flora Sitchler - La Vernia, TX Nancy Sosa, Cadence Bank - Austin, TX
3:35 pm	Break  Sponsored by American National Bank of Texas
3:45 pm 0.50 hr	SSA Ethical Rules: Mountains or Molehills  Hear a discussion on the Social Security Administration's real-life approach to whether fee approval is needed for preparing SNTs (a molehill) and whether trustees can pay family members to care for their beneficiaries (a mountain).  Constance R. Somers, Law Office Of Constance Somers - San Antonio, TX
4:15 pm 0.50 hr	View from HHSC  A discussion of current issues and trends from the Texas Health and Human Services Commission.  Shari L. Nichols, Texas Health and Human Services Commission - Austin, TX

LUNCHEON PRESENTATION

12:35 pm 0.75 hr	Advising and Distribution Plans Explore how creating a distribution plan for a special needs trust can be a good tool to coordinate the activities of the SNT management team. Discuss the advantages of offering distribution advisement services, which can be a good source of sustainable revenue, and can assist the law firm to better serve the beneficiary in identifying problems before they happen and acting quickly to minimize disruption of benefit eligibility if threatened. Stephen W. Dale, The Dale Law Firm, PC - Pacheco, CA
1:20 pm	Break
1:35 pm 0.75 hr	Decanting and SNTs The trust instrument actually governing administration in a particular instance may be less than ideal. Whether it is important to add specific "special needs" provisions, or to limit trustee discretion, or to provide for trustee succession—or any of a host of other changes that need to be considered—decanting, trust modification, and trust reform are often helpful concepts to master and apply capably. Robert B. Fleming, Fleming &amp; Curti, PLC - Tucson, AZ

2:20 pm 0.75 hr	Crowdfunding: Manna from Heaven, or Disaster in the Making? The road to ineligibility is paved with good intentions. Crowdfunding sites (GoFundMe, Indiegogo, Kickstarter, to name a few) gather thousands and even hundreds of thousands of dollars for people in distress, including those with disabilities. What happens when public benefits are involved? How can SNT attorneys pre-plan or crisis plan for beneficiaries—and can SNTs play a role? ABLE accounts? Discuss our latest challenge: planning for the crowdfunding beneficiary. Mary Alice Jackson, Mary Alice Jackson, P.C. - Austin, TX
3:05 pm 0.50 hr	ABLE: Practical Applications ABLE Accounts are now available across the country. Through a series of case studies, review the advantages of this new tool and how it can work with a special needs trust, and learn how to use this new tool to better serve the beneficiary and enhance the special needs trust practice. Plus, explore how to partner with disability organizations and provide education in their communities about both ABLE Accounts and special needs trusts. Stephen W. Dale, The Dale Law Firm, PC - Pacheco, CA
3:35 pm	Break Sponsored by Bank of Texas
3:45 pm 0.50 hr	Transitioning the Adult Disabled Child Understand the use of the Pickle Amendment for an adult disabled child to obtain medicaid benefits. Bryn A. Poland, Law Office of Pi-Yi Mayo - Baytown, TX
4:15 pm 0.50 hr ethics	Identifying Financial Exploitation Financial scams are getting more sophisticated every year. Strangers, caregivers, and even family members sometimes target the accounts of people with cognitive impairments. Learn how to identify financial exploitation and options to prevent it. Leah Cohen, arrangeCARE - Austin, TX Michael J. Curran, Michael Curran, PC - Austin, TX
4:45 pm 0.50 hr	SNT Modifications and Reformatations Discuss the objective of avoiding SNT modifications when possible, the reasons why modifications or reformatations promote a trust grantor's intent, and how an attorney should proceed with the analysis and steps. Renée C. Lovelace, The Lovelace Law Firm, P.C. - Austin, TX
5:15 pm	Adjourn
