1:15 pm 1.00 hr	A Field Guide to Cancellation of Debt Income This session discusses the fundamental rules for cancellation of debt (COD) income and explains the origins and rationale for the rule now codified in Section 61(a)(12), the events that trigger recognition of COD income, and the manner in which the amount of COD is determined. Special attention is devoted to the myriad rules, both statutory and judicial, for the permitted nonrecognition of COD income under particular circumstances. The session also examines the tax consequences of transfers of property to discharge debt and the relationship of COD to gain from the transfer of property to satisfy a debt. Finally, there is discussion of the tax consequences to a business entity that issues an equity interest to a creditor to satisfy a debt. Martin J. McMahon Jr., University of Florida, Fredric G. Levin College of Law - Gainesville, FL Daniel L. Simmons, UC Davis School of Law - Davis, CA
2:15 pm 1.00 hr 0.25 hr ethics	Successfully Negotiating Offers in Compromise Over the past several years, the IRS has totally revised its system of offers in compromise, and in 2010 has again changed the rules. This presentation covers the best techniques for offers in compromise, helping you successfully reduce your taxpayer's large tax obligations to more manageable amounts. Larry Jones, Townsend & Jones, L.L.P. - Dallas, TX Robert E.
