UT LAW CLE Continuing Legal Education

eCourse
Hooked on CLE: April 2025

Session 1 0.75 hr	Crossover Creators: A Legal Guide to Multi-Industry Success Today's creators aren't just artists—they're global brands. Crossing over into brand collaborations, product lines, and new industries presents exciting opportunities but also complex legal challenges. Whether it's negotiating deals, protecting intellectual property, or navigating global markets, advising your clients in this multi-industry landscape requires a nuanced approach. Explore real-world case studies (Pharell Williams, Takashi Murakami, Snoop Dog, Rihanna, Taylor Swift, MSCHF) and provide practical insights into navigating the evolving creator economy. Polina Ivko, Adwar Ivko - New York, NY Andrea N. Perez, Carrington, Coleman, Sloman & Blumenthal L.L.P. - Dallas, TX
Session 2 1.00 hr	Navigating the Cybersecurity Landscape: Best Practices for Governance A robust discussion and insights from the field on effective cybersecurity governance, including regulatory requirements, key elements of a governance program, and best practices and risk mitigation strategies. Jay Johnson, Charles Schwab - Westlake, TX Brandon Rogers, Travis County - Austin, TX Sam Rubin, Palo Alto Networks Unit 42 - Austin, TX Douglas Vreeland, Tokyo Electron U.S. Holdings, Inc - Austin, TX
Session 3 0.50 hr	Partition of Real Property Under Texas Law: A Primer An overview of the litigation process of a claim for partition of real estate, including issues which arise under the Uniform Partition of Heirs' Property Act. Sanford L. Dow, Dow Golub Remels & Gilbreath, PLLC - Houston, TX
Session 4 0.75 hr	Preparing for a Bankruptcy A discussion of practical considerations for business lawyers and their clients when businesses are considering bankruptcy. Simon Mayer, Locke Lord, LLP - Houston, TX
Session 5 1.00 hr | 1.00 Ethics	Who's Your Client? Identifying your client seems like a simple issue, but it is frequently complicated, particularly with organizational clients such as partnerships, LLCs, corporations or trusts, or even simply joint return filers. The client's identity in turn bears on all sorts of ethical and practical issues, including conflicts, where your duties lie, how to advise organizational clients, protect client confidences and privileges, handle communications with others and common interest agreements, etc. Christopher S. Rizek, Holland & Knight - Washington, DC
