PROPERTY OF THE ESTATE

Property that Never Becomes Part of the Estate

- With exceptions, property of the estate includes "all legal or equitable interests of the debtor in property as of the commencement of the case."
  11 U.S.C. § 541(a)(1).
- Texas is a community property state and there is a common misconception about what marital property comes into a bankruptcy estate.

Property of the Estate - 11 U.S.C. § 541(a)(2)

- § 541(a)(2) provides that property of the estate includes "all interests of the debtor and the debtor's spouse in community property as of the commencement of the case that is
  - (A) under the sole, equal, or joint management and control of the debtor; or
  - (B) liable for an allowable claim against the debtor, or for both an allowable claim against the debtor and an allowable claim against the debtor's spouse, to the extent that such interest is so liable."

Property of the Estate - 11 U.S.C. § 541(a)(2)

- The issue of (1) what interest in community property is under the sole or joint management of the debtor or (2) is liable for a claim against the debtor and the debtor's spouse is an issue of state law.
- There are no U.S. Bankruptcy Code provisions which purport to address this issue.
