

EFFECTIVELY NEGOTIATING WITH THE INSURANCE ADJUSTER: DEMANDING FOR DOLLARS

William M. Toles
Partner
Fee, Smith, Sharp & Vitullo, LLP

DEMANDING FOR DOLLARS: MAXIMIZING SETTLEMENT VALUE WITH DEMAND LETTERS AND ANALYSIS

- Know Your File
 - Knowing what Adjuster wants to know
 - Knowing Your Client
-

DEMANDING FOR DOLLARS: MAXIMIZING SETTLEMENT VALUE WITH DEMAND LETTERS AND ANALYSIS

Things to ask:

- Do you have prior claims?
- Did you have any of these injuries before the accident?
- Do you have a criminal record?
- Have to already spoken to the adjuster?
- Did you tell the adjuster you were injured?

DEMANDING FOR DOLLARS: MAXIMIZING SETTLEMENT VALUE WITH DEMAND LETTERS AND ANALYSIS

- Use your knowledge to help the adjuster set a reserve

Find the full text of this and thousands of other resources from leading experts in dozens of legal practice areas in the UT Law CLE eLibrary \(utcle.org/elibrary\)

Title search: Effectively Negotiating with the Insurance Adjuster: Demanding for Dollars

Also available as part of the eCourse

Answer Bar: Taking on the Car Crash Client

First appeared as part of the conference materials for the 2017 The Car Crash Seminar session
"Medical Records"