

PRESENTED AT

Renewable Energy Law

Jan 29-30, 2018

Austin, TX

Due Diligence and M&A for Clean Energy Projects

John F. Young

Author Contact Information:

John F. Young

Clean Law PC

La Grange, IL

John.Young@CleanLawPC.com

312.806.1882

Due Diligence and M&A for Clean Energy Projects

John F. Young
Clean Law PC
January 30, 2018

STRUCTURE OF TRANSACTION

- “Stock” vs. asset
 - Transfer consideration (assignments, permits)
 - Inclusivity of transaction (assets and liabilities)
 - Tax considerations
-
- Majority of transactions are “stock” (i.e., membership interest)

DEVELOPMENT/OPERATIONAL

- Payment structure
- Proximity to COD
- Regulatory changes

AREAS OF DILIGENCE

- Resource
- Operation
- Financial performance
- Condition of facilities
- Contracts
- Compliance/permits
- Incentives
- Corporate/legal health

Find the full text of this and thousands of other resources from leading experts in dozens of legal practice areas in the UT Law CLE eLibrary \(utcle.org/elibrary\)

Title search: Due Diligence and M&A for Clean Energy Projects

Also available as part of the eCourse

eSupplement to the 15th Annual Mergers and Acquisitions Institute

First appeared as part of the conference materials for the 2018 Renewable Energy Law session

"Due Diligence and M&A for Clean Energy Projects"