

A DEFENSE PERSPECTIVE ON MEDICAL RECORDS

Melissa White & Erin Westendorf-Boyd

1

We come in Peace

2

WHAT DO THEY WANT FROM ME?

What defense attorneys are looking for in medical records

3

WHAT DO THEY WANT FROM ME?

HISTORY

- Similar injuries
- Other injurious events
- Prior doctors-using same providers or attorney referral?
- Consistency of care

CONDITIONS

- That may affect impairment
- That may cause same/similar symptoms
- That may exacerbate injury
- That may affect recovery

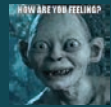

COMPLIANCE

- Gaps in treatment
- Failure to complete or continue care
- Failure to seek recommended care
- Honesty with providers

ACTIVITY

- Vacations
- Exercise
- Work
- Sports
- Beware the internet

PRESENT STATUS

- Symptoms
- Treatment
- New injuries
- Release from care
- Ongoing complaints

4

Find the full text of this and thousands of other resources from leading experts in dozens of legal practice areas in the UT Law CLE eLibrary \(utcle.org/elibrary\)

Title search: A Defense Perspective on Medical Records

Also available as part of the eCourse

Car Crash Trials Tactics: Affidavits, Deposition and Cross-Exam, Medical Records, and more

First appeared as part of the conference materials for the 2019 Car Crash Seminar session
"Defense Perspective on Medical Records"