

Letters of Intent for SNTs

HALEY D. GREER

Director, The Arc of Texas Master Pooled Trust

EMPOWERED > INFORMED > INCLUDED >

1

1

Daniel

- Loves video games
- Lives with roommates with staff nearby 24/7
- Protective of his parents
- People pleaser
- Autism Spectrum Disorder
- Oppositional Defiant Disorder
- Takes things VERY LITERALLY
- “NO” is a trigger that causes anger
- Wants a time machine

EMPOWERED > INFORMED > INCLUDED >

2

2

Melinda

- Lives with best friend Samantha
- Hobbies include cooking, shopping and driving around
- Works at the ice cream shop.
- Bipolar Disorder
- Not consistent with medications
- Spends lots of money when having an episode

Jenny

- Lives with her fiancé
- Loves being in love and planning weddings
- Has been married twice
- Diabetes
- Physical support needs

What should be included

- Who is writing the Letter of Intent and for what purpose
- Personal Information about the Beneficiary
- Living Situation
 - Give details about both their current and future living plans
- Education

What should be included

- Family Information
 - Family Members who are or who are not in the life of the individual
 - What is important to your family, like traditions, holidays, birthdays or past times and how they are celebrated.
 - Best friends, close friends who are a regular part of the individual's life.

Find the full text of this and thousands of other resources from leading experts in dozens of legal practice areas in the UT Law CLE eLibrary \(utcle.org/elibrary\)

Title search: Letters of Intent for SNTs

Also available as part of the eCourse

2020 Special Needs Trusts eConference

First appeared as part of the conference materials for the 16th Annual Changes and Trends Affecting Special Needs Trusts session
"Letters of Intent for SNTs"