

PRACTICAL CONSIDERATIONS

*for consumer
attorneys*

PRACTICAL CONSIDERATIONS FOR CONSUMER ATTORNEYS

A review of how to increase the chances of the Debtor successfully completing their case.

*A discussion of how to create a savings plan, increase the disbursements for attorney fees,
structure the best plan for the debtor, bankruptcy planning and ethical considerations.*

Moderator: Hon. Marvin Isgur,
U.S. Bankruptcy Court, Southern District of Texas - Houston, TX .

Panelist:

Cristina Rodriguez, Keeling Law Firm
- Houston, TX

HELP DEBTORS SUCCESSFULLY COMPLETE THEIR CHAPTER 13 PLAN

Design the best plan payment for the debtor

- Carefully review their budget to ensure they can make their payments throughout their case
 - create a savings for unexpected changes to income or expenses
- Keep payments as affordable as possible
 - pay only what is required by the code
 - analyze the most affordable way to pay back their debts
 - verify all required payments are provided for

Find the full text of this and thousands of other resources from leading experts in dozens of legal practice areas in the UT Law CLE eLibrary \(utcle.org/elibrary\)

Title search: Practical Considerations for Consumer Attorneys

Also available as part of the eCourse

eSupplement to the 16th Annual Consumer Bankruptcy Practice

First appeared as part of the conference materials for the 38th Annual Jay L. Westbrook Bankruptcy Conference session
"Practical Considerations for Consumer Attorneys"