I consider trial by jury as the only answer ever yet imagined by man, by which a government can be held to the principles of its constitution.

Thomas
Jefferson

---

If the trial dies, the cause will not be the tyrant's ax but a long and scarcely noticed process of decay. Indifference, in the long run, is deadlier than any coup, and democratic institutions are easily lost through neglect followed by decline and abandonment.

Judge William L. Dwyer
