

Clash of Courts: Avenging a Bad Court of Appeals Decision by PDR

Stacey M. Goldstein, Office of State Prosecuting Attorney

In the Court of Appeals

Video Clip

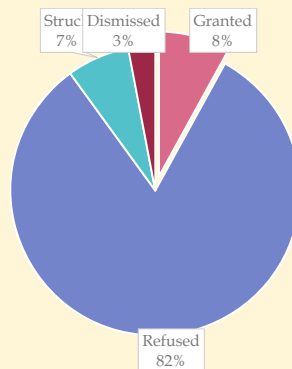

Preparing for Battle

Building a PDR

- Selecting an Issue
- Framing the Issue
- Defending Your Argument
- Rules of Engagement

Shot at Winning the Battle

No Revenge for You

- Issues not Ruled Upon
- Grounds that do not Challenge the Court of Appeals Decision
- Interlocutory Abatement Order
- Order Denying Motion to Recuse Appellate Justice

Selecting Your Issue

Best Practices in Your Battle Preparation

Find the full text of this and thousands of other resources from leading experts in dozens of legal practice areas in the UT Law CLE eLibrary \(utcle.org/elibrary\)

Title search: Clash of Courts: Avenging a Bad Court of Appeals Decision by PDR

Also available as part of the eCourse

Avenging a Bad Court of Appeals Decision by PDR; Error in Jury Charges; plus Solving the Dilemma of Wrongful Convictions

First appeared as part of the conference materials for the 2015 Robert O. Dawson Conference on Criminal Appeals session

"Clash of Courts: Avenging a Bad Court of Appeals Decision by Petition for Discretionary Review (PDR)"