

PRESENTED AT

2015 Trial Skills Training Camp

October 23, 2015
Houston, Texas

The Do's and Don'ts of Depositions In and Out of the Courtroom

Keith C. Cartwright

The Do's and Don'ts of Depositions In and Out of the Courtroom

COURTROOM CONCEPTS
VISUALIZING LITIGATION TECHNOLOGY

1

“OH. Don’t let the camera bother you! We videotape everything we do in order to argue about it later with more precision!”

2

What I Will Go Over

- How this information can help you
- Who I am and a little about my company
- The do's and don'ts of depositions in and out of the courtroom
- Conclusion

3

The witness had been doing so well at his deposition when suddenly...

4

How This Information Can Help You

- You will have an advantage in the courtroom
- More efficient with your time, helping the team to focus on the big picture
- Maximize efficiency and therefore save money throughout the case

5

Who I Am & A Little About My Company

- My business partner Nancy Rose and I have been in the litigation industry 30+ years
- Over the last 3 years we have Average 15 trials per year
- Our Average trial is around 2 weeks
- We are in the courtroom more or less 200 days out of each year
- We have been involved in several hundreds of trials over the years, whether it is trial support or graphic design or depo editing

6

Find the full text of this and thousands of other resources from leading experts in dozens of legal practice areas in the UT Law CLE eLibrary \(utcle.org/elibrary\)

Title search: The Do's and Don'ts of Depositions: In and Out of the Courtroom

Also available as part of the eCourse

Ethics: Winning at Trial with Effective Opening Statements, Closing Arguments, Voir Dire and the Use of Technology

First appeared as part of the conference materials for the 2015 Trial Skills Training Camp session
"Beyond the ELMO: Graphics, Models and Much More!"