

Student Data Privacy:

The National Conversation

UT Law 2016 School Law Conference
February 25, 2016

Sonja Trainor, Director,
Council of School Attorneys
National School Boards Association
1680 Duke St.
Alexandria, VA 22314
703-838-6155
strainor@nsba.org

Here's the trailer:

- ❑ Student Data Privacy: Where We've Been
- ❑ Google Sees Everything
- ❑ Federal Law: Where We Are
- ❑ Federal Law: Where We're Going
- ❑ State Law: Where We Are, Where We're Going, and Where TX Fits In

December 1, 2015

Google Deceptively Tracks Students' Internet Browsing, EFF Says in FTC Complaint

EFF Launches 'Spying on Students' Campaign to Raise Awareness About Privacy Risks of School Technology Tools

STUDENT PRIVACY PLEDGE

Privacy Pledge
Signatories – currently 220
Press Release
Privacy Pledge \(Spanish\)

200 Companies Have Now Signed the Student Privacy Pledge

LAWS & GUIDANCE

Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA)

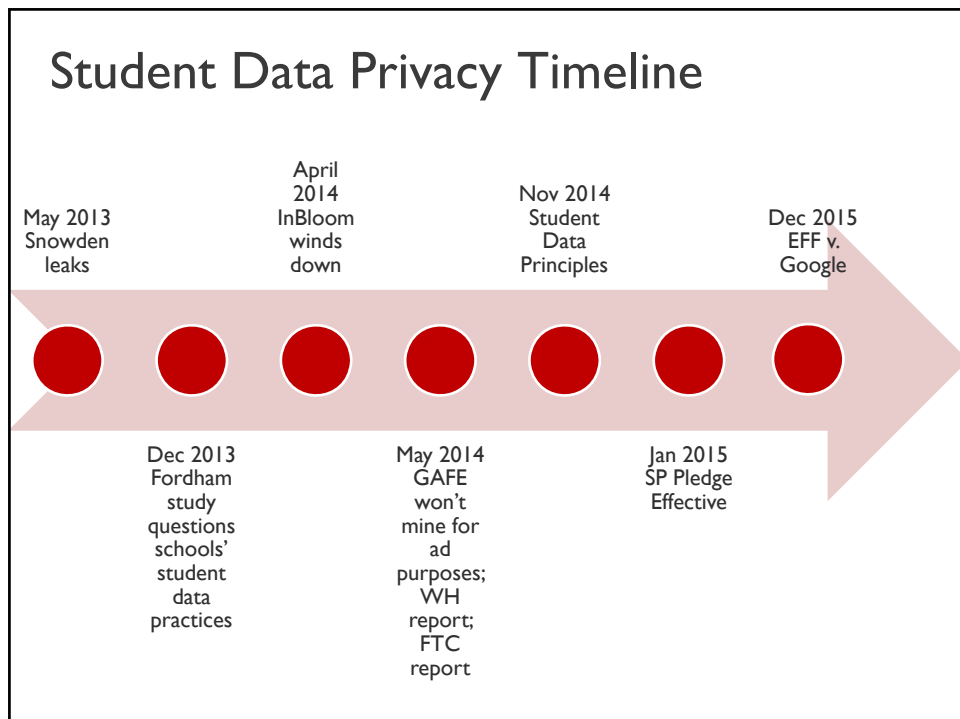

Student Data Privacy Symposium

You are invited to attend the 2015

National Student Privacy Symposium

STUDENT DATA
PRIVACY:
WHERE WE’VE BEEN

Find the full text of this and thousands of other resources from leading experts in dozens of legal practice areas in the UT Law CLE eLibrary \(utcle.org/elibrary\)

Title search: Student Data Privacy: The National Conversation

Also available as part of the eCourse

The Intersection of School Law and Technology: Privacy Issues, Responsibilities beyond the Brick and Mortar, and the Ethical Issues of Practicing Law in a Tech-Driven World

First appeared as part of the conference materials for the 31st Annual School Law Conference session

"Student Data Privacy: The National Conversation"