Who is a federal contractor?

- Government contract
Any agreement or modification thereof between any contracting agency and any person for the furnishing of supplies or services, or for the use of real or personal property including lease agreements. The term “services,” as used here, includes, but is not limited to, the following: utility, construction, transportation, research, insurance, and fund depository, regardless of whether the Government is the purchaser or seller. The term “Government Contract” does not include (a) agreements in which the parties stand in the relationship of employer and employee; and (b) Federally assisted construction contracts. See 41 CFR 60-1.3, 250.2 and 741.2.
- “Contractor” means, unless otherwise indicated, a prime contractor or subcontractor. 41 CFR 60-1.3
