"I sought for the greatness and genius of America in her commodious harbors and her ample rivers – and it was not there...in her fertile fields and boundless forests and it was not there...in her rich mines and her vast world commerce – and it was not there...in her democratic Congress and her matchless Constitution – and it was not there. Not until I went into the churches of America and heard her pulpits aflame with righteousness did I understand the secret of her genius and power. America is great because she is good, and if America ever ceases to be good, she will cease to be great."

– Alexis de Tocqueville, Democracy in America
