

Investment Bankers for Global Energy and Infrastructure Markets

Ammad Faisal
Senior Vice President, Marathon Capital
Power and Utilities M&A

University of Texas School of Law

"Best Renewable Asset M&A Advisor"- Power Finance & Risk

*"Things take longer to happen than you think they will,
and then they happen faster than you thought they could."*

–Rudi Dornbusch, notable economist

Key Themes

- Rapid Transition from Fossil to Renewables
 - It's the Economics dummy
 - Energy policy and consumer preference
- Merchant Exposure Heavily Discounted
 - Creative solutions
- Unprecedented Premiums
 - Sellers market
 - Cheap and abundant debt
- Canadian Buyers
 - Three out of the top five largest Utility M&A transactions

Confidential

MARATHON CAPITAL

3

Renewables – Lion Share of New Capacity

Source: Bloomberg New Energy Outlook 2016, Note: Does not include battery storage or other flexible capacity

Confidential

MARATHON CAPITAL

4

Power Prices – Depressing

Wholesale Power Price Forecast (By ISO Region, $/MWh)

Confidential

MARATHON CAPITAL

5

Utilities – Better than IPPs but Still Lag Market

5-Year Relative Public Equity Performance

Source: Capital IQ 2016-08-25

Confidential

MARATHON CAPITAL

6

Find the full text of this and thousands of other resources from leading experts in dozens of legal practice areas in the UT Law CLE eLibrary \(utcle.org/elibrary\)

Title search: Mergers and Acquisitions in the Gas and Power Industry

Also available as part of the eCourse

Mergers and Acquisitions in the Gas and Power Industry

First appeared as part of the conference materials for the 15th Annual Gas and Power Institute session

"Mergers and Acquisitions in the Gas and Power Industry"