COD Income

- The excess of stated principal or adjusted issue price over the amount of money and value of property transferred in satisfaction of debt.
- Taxable as ordinary income under IRC Section 61(a)(12).
- Does not apply to non-recourse debt which is treated as Section 1001 exchange with proceeds equal to stated principal of note.

Bankruptcy Insolvency Exception

- COD Income Recognition.
- Debtor in bankruptcy – Chapter Proceeding or similar state law proceeding (§108(b)(1)(A)).
- Debtor is insolvent for tax purposes.
Insolvency is measured on a fair market value basis. Non-recourse debt is treated as liability only to the extent of value of underlying security. Non-recognition applies only to the extent of insolvency.
