What are the Types of IRS Audits of Public Charities?

•Audit Versus Examination

- Synonymous terms
- Two kinds of audits: (1) Office/correspondence audit and (2) Field audit

•Not an Audit—Compliance Check

- Record-keeping and information-reporting requirements being followed?
- Activities consistent with stated tax-exempt purposes?
- Books and records typically not examined
- Tax liability typically not questioned

What are the Types of IRS Audits of Public Charities?

•Office/Correspondence Audit

- Generally conducted through correspondence or over telephone
- Generally limited in scope and focused on one to four return items/issues
- May evolve into field audit if issues become more complex
