

Presented at:

34th Annual Nonprofit Organizations Institute
Four Seasons Hotel – Austin, Texas

January 12, 2017

Advanced Issues with Retirement Benefits

Presented by:

William M. Fisher, Partner
Wilkins Finston Friedman Law Group LLP
McCombs Plaza
755 E. Mulberry Ave., Suite 200
San Antonio, Texas 78212
wfisher@wifilawgroup.com
(210) 504-2949

Valorie S. Foster, CPA
Southwest Research Institute
6220 Culebra Road
San Antonio, Texas
Valorie.foster@swri.org
(210) 522-2057

Retirement Plan Options

Qualified Retirement Plans

- Defined Benefit Plan
- 401(k) Plan
- 403(b) Plan
- SIMPLE, SEPs, IRAs

Deferred Compensation Plans

- Eligible 457(b) Plans
- Ineligible 457(f) Plans

Slide No. 2

403(b) Plans

What is different from a 401(k) Plan?

- Assets held in individual or group annuity contracts or custodial accounts
- Universal (and immediate) availability required for employee deferrals
- Exclusions allowed for non-resident aliens, students, employees who normally work < 20 hours per week, or participate in another 403(b) or 401(k) plan of the employer, and employees who will contribute <$200 annually

Slide No. 3

403(b) Plans

What is different from a 401(k) Plan?

Special catch-up election for public schools, hospitals, health and welfare service agencies, home health agencies and church-related organizations

- Employees with ≥ 15 years of service with organization
- Generally, extra $3,000 per year for 5 years; capped at $15,000
- Can be used with age 50 catch-up; 15-year catch-up applies first

Slide No. 4

403(b) Plans

What is different from a 401(k) Plan?

Post-severance non-elective contributions for 5 years

- Deemed monthly compensation of 1/12 of former employee's compensation for most recent year of service
- Used as early or additional retirement incentive
- Must be nondiscriminatory

Slide No. 5

Find the full text of this and thousands of other resources from leading experts in dozens of legal practice areas in the UT Law CLE eLibrary \(utcle.org/elibrary\)

Title search: Advanced Issues with Retirement Benefits

Also available as part of the eCourse

2017 Nonprofit Organizations eConference

First appeared as part of the conference materials for the 34th Annual Nonprofit Organizations Institute session
"Advanced Issues with Retirement Benefits"