

Intellectual Property 2.0: Top 10 IP Risks for Non-Profits

UT Law 2017 Nonprofit Organizations Institute
January 12, 2017

THE PIZARRO FIRM

Intellectual Property Law | Technology
www.pizarrofirm.com

Top 10 IP Risk Areas

1. Recognizing intellectual property rights
2. Trademark selection
3. Trademark use
4. Intellectual property ownership
5. Fair use
6. Releases
7. Protecting non-profit intellectual property
8. Establishing intellectual property policies
9. Intellectual property online
10. Licensing

THE PIZARRO FIRM

www.pizarrofirm.com

Recognizing IP Rights – Places To Look

“External” Examples

- Websites
- Products
- Newsletters
- Videos
- Songs
- Photographs
- Graphics
- SWAG
- Presentations
- Creative packaging

- Advertising
- Brochures
- Logos
- User-generated content

“Internal” Examples

- Operational processes
- Donor lists
- Fundraising know-how
- How-to manuals
- Software

THE PIZARRO FIRM

www.pizarrofirm.com

Recognizing IP Rights

...trademark rights!

THE PIZARRO FIRM

www.pizarrofirm.com

Recognizing IP Rights

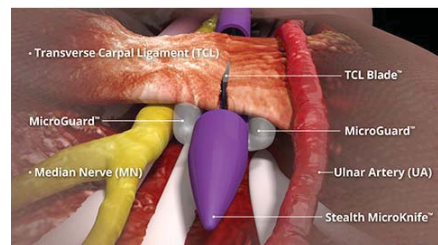

...copyrights!

THE PIZARRO FIRM

www.pizarrofirm.com

Recognizing IP Rights

...patent rights!

THE PIZARRO FIRM

www.pizarrofirm.com

Find the full text of this and thousands of other resources from leading experts in dozens of legal practice areas in the UT Law CLE eLibrary \(utcle.org/elibrary\)

Title search: Intellectual Property 2.0: Top 10 IP Risks for Nonprofits

Also available as part of the eCourse

2017 Nonprofit Organizations eConference

First appeared as part of the conference materials for the 34th Annual Nonprofit Organizations Institute session "Intellectual Property 2.0: Top 10 IP Risks for Nonprofits"