

Steps in Whistleblower case

- Define the problem
- Plan the engagement
- Engage necessary expert
- Execute the plan
- Report the findings

Who is a whistleblower?

- One who reveals wrongdoing
- An employee who reports employer wrongdoing to a governmental or law-enforcement

What laws protect whistleblowers?

- Texas Whistleblower Act
- Texas Labor Code
- Sabine Pilot doctrine
- Sarbanes Oxley
- OSHA
- Environmental protections

What steps does the nonprofit need to take?

- Engage an attorney to conduct the investigation
- Issue do not destroy documents order
- Do not attempt to investigate the claims
- Do not take any employment actions

What steps does the attorney need to take?

- STEP 1
- Draft an engagement letter tailored to this engagement
- Determine whether to engage criminal attorney as co-counsel
- Determine the applicable authority for this complaint

Find the full text of this and thousands of other resources from leading experts in dozens of legal practice areas in the UT Law CLE eLibrary \(utcle.org/elibrary\)

Title search: Anatomy of a Whistleblower Case

Also available as part of the eCourse

2017 Nonprofit Organizations eConference

First appeared as part of the conference materials for the 34th Annual Nonprofit Organizations Institute session
"Anatomy of a Whistleblower Complaint"