

Who is a Pickle Person?

A "Pickle Person" is a person who, although originally eligible for SSI and Medicaid benefits after April 1977, has lost that eligibility as a result of increases in countable income as a result of cost of living adjustments (COLA) to that income.

Trivia

Pickle did not offer the final amendment. He tried to index the SSI disregard.

Senator Bensen introduced bill that passed

The Pickle Amendment has been described as: "one of the longest run-on sentences to be found in the entire United States Code," and that the "nearly impenetrable verbiage of the amendment, is quite expansive."
