Trump's health policy proposals: From "repeal and replace" to the "art of the deal"

"Repeal and replace"

- Major change and uncertainty
- Raise deficit and uninsured
- Popular provisions too

The art of the deal

- Touted success in the boardroom / in negotiations
- But what about gridlocked Congress / many competing interests
- Medicaid block-grants / x-state selling may face tough odds in Congress

Free market principles

- Business-like free-market approach to the healthcare industry
- Expanded use of consumer tax-advantaged HSAs
- Provider and pharma pricing transparency / call out specific companies

Insurers are working on a tight timeline for the next Affordable Care Act enrollment season

Health reform legislation will fall along a continuum with vastly different outcomes for the healthcare industry

Increase in the uninsured compared with ACA, by 2026 (millions)

Scenario 1:
Repeal
+32 million

American Health Care Act
+24 million

Scenario 2:
Replace
+12 million

Scenario 3:
Repair
+6 million
