1

Operating Agreement

- Defines the rights and obligations of co-tenants or separate owners of property in a contract area.
- Effectively “pools” the interests of the owners.
- Helps avoid disputes over the rights and obligations of the parties.
- Establishes optimal relationship for tax and liability.

2

Operating Agreement Liability and Tax Structure

- Parties are cotenants, not partners or shareholders.
- Operator is independent contractor.
- Parties are not fiduciaries.
- Parties jointly and severally liable only to the extent of their ownership.
- Taxed as individual owners.

3

Operating Agreements Usually Start with a Model Form

- Minimizes transactions costs—the costs of doing the deal.
- Apparent fairness.
- Model forms reflect industry custom and practice.
- Bring certainty of meaning over time.
- Parties can focus on important issues.
