

PRESENTED AT

30th Annual Technology Law Conference

May 25-26, 2017

Austin, Texas

Deal Breakers: Navigating Due Diligence in Technology Transactions

Panelists:

John Holmes

General Counsel - ForcePoint

Mark Mouritsen

Senior Vice President, Legal - Dell

Alan Schoenbaum

Managing Member - Clarksville Capital, LLC

Moderator Contact Information:

Courtney S. York
Partner, Baker Botts L.L.P.
Dallas, Texas

courtney.york@bakerbotts.com
214.953.6971

Deal Breakers: Navigating Due Diligence in Technology Transactions

May 26, 2017

John Holmes
General Counsel – ForcePoint

Alan Schoenbaum
Managing Member – Clarksville Capital, LLC

Mark Mouritsen
Senior Vice President, Legal – Dell

Courtney York – Partner
BAKER BOTTS

Deal Breakers: Navigating Due Diligence in Technology Transactions

Outline of Topics

- Commencing the Due Diligence Process
- Seller Ethical Considerations
- Buyer Due Diligence Objectives
- Conducting Due Diligence - Red Flags/Deal Breakers
- Best Practices and Trends
 - Diligence of Open Source Code
 - Diligence of Cybersecurity and Privacy Risks
 - Trade Compliance
- Termination of Due Diligence Process - Ethical Considerations

Commencing the Due Diligence Process

- Confidentiality Agreement
 - Timing
 - Mutual or One-Way; Term
 - Often covers both confidentiality and use restrictions, as well as non-solicitation obligations
 - Residuals
- HSR Considerations - "Clean Room" Procedures
 - When needed
 - How to implement
- Exclusivity Period
- Assembling the due diligence team

3

Seller Ethical Considerations

- Disclosure and Timing
 - Obligation to provide requested information
 - Ethical considerations surrounding disclosure
- Potential "Bad Facts"
 - FCPA violations
 - State tax issues
 - Import/export compliance
 - Cybersecurity breaches
 - Ethics violation trends
- Compliance with Exclusivity Obligations

4

Buyer Due Diligence Objectives

- Business Approach
 - Private Equity Buyer
 - Strategic Buyer
- Risk Analysis
 - Depends on size of acquisition and strategic objectives
 - General risk position of buyer
- Budget
 - Often impacts amount and scope of resources allocated to diligence
 - Internal review
 - Outside advisors (legal, financial, tax, IP, etc.)

5

Conducting Due Diligence- Deal Breakers

- Contract Review - Customers and Suppliers
- Potential Red Flags:
 - MFNs ("most favored nation" provisions)
 - Non-competition obligations
 - Non-solicitation obligations
 - Failure to limit liability
 - Broad indemnities
 - Long-term exclusivity arrangements
 - Other
- Confidentiality obligations in customer/supplier contracts

6

Find the full text of this and thousands of other resources from leading experts in dozens of legal practice areas in the UT Law CLE eLibrary \(utcle.org/elibrary\)

Title search: Deal Breakers: Navigating Due Diligence in Technology Transactions

Also available as part of the eCourse
2017 Technology Law eConference

First appeared as part of the conference materials for the 30th Annual Technology Law Conference session
"Deal Breakers: Navigating Due Diligence in Technology Transactions"