

Strategic Developments Under the FLSA

Robert E. Sheeder
Bracewell LLP

The Fair Labor Standards Act

The FLSA Creates 5 Major Requirements:

- 1. Payment of a minimum wage
- 2. Payment of overtime wages to covered employees for hours worked in excess of 40 per week
- 3. Equal pay for males and females doing equal work
- 4. Restrictions on employment of child labor
- 5. Certain recordkeeping with respect to wage and hours

Focus

Recent Focus of FLSA Actions:

- Whether an employee has received all overtime to which he/she is entitled
- Whether an employee is properly exempted under White Collar exemptions or as Independent Contractor
- Applicability of Motor Carrier Exemption

3

Changes to Overtime: Who Will Qualify for the Overtime Exemption?

- Three Traditional White Collar Exemptions: Executive, Administrative and Professional
 - All require salary of not less than $455 per week.
 - Primary duties tests for each.
- Highly Compensated Employee Exemption
 - Total annual compensation of at least $100,000.00.
 - Customarily and regularly perform at least one primary duty of a White Collar exemption.
- Department of Labor Released new “Final Rule” on salary requirements May 18, 2016

Changes to Overtime: Who Will Qualify for the Overtime Exemption? – Cont.

- Three Major Changes:

1. Raised the salary level for exempt white-collar employees from $455 per week ($23,660 per year) to $913 per week ($47,476 per year).
2. Raised the total annual compensation needed for the highly compensated employee (HCE) exemption from $100,000 to $134,004.
3. Automatic raises in salary and compensation levels every three years to maintain the levels at the 40th percentile of earnings of full-time salaried workers in the lowest wage Census Region for the white-collar exemptions, and 90th percentile for the highly compensated employee exemption.

5

Changes to Overtime: Who Will Qualify for the Overtime Exemption? – Cont.

- Importantly, the Final Rule made no changes to the “duties” tests for exempt employees.
- Final Rule was set to go into effect on December 1, 2016....
