

Hello!
Inadvertent Partnerships

John C. Ale
Senior Vice President, General Counsel & Secretary
Southwestern Energy Company

LLCs, LPs and Partnerships
UTCLE – Austin, July 13-14, 2017

1

Definition of Partnership

Association of 2 or more persons

To carry on

A business

As co-owners

2

Implications in Definition

Does not require:

- Written or even oral agreement, although “association” implies some sort of understanding
- Participants to identify themselves as partners
- Business actually be conducted, only that they “associate[e] . . . to carry on a business”

Does require:

- Business be intended for profit
- Associating as owners and not in some other relationship; e.g.
 - employer-employee
 - lender-borrower
 - landlord-tenant

3

Factors Indicating Partnership

Receiving or right to receive profits

Expression of intent to be partners

Participating or right to participate in control

Sharing or agreement to share losses or liabilities

Making or agreeing to make contributions

4

How to Assess Factors Ingram v. Deere (Tex. 2009)

Factors considered as a whole

No one factor is determinative

Absence of any factor means no partnership

Presence of all factors means partnership

Only one factor typically is not enough

All other circumstances:

- Factfinder determines
- Reviewed for sufficiency of evidence

5

Factors Not Sufficient by Themselves

Receipt of or the right to receive profits in repayment of debt, as wages, as rent, in liquidation of a former partner's interest or in consideration of the sale of a business

Co-ownership of property (as opposed to operating a business on or with the property)

Sharing of or the right to share gross returns (as opposed to net profits)

Co-ownership of mineral property even if subject to a joint operating agreement

6

Find the full text of this and thousands of other resources from leading experts in dozens of legal practice areas in the UT Law CLE eLibrary \(utcle.org/elibrary\)

Title search: "Hello"—Inadvertent Partnerships

Also available as part of the eCourse

"Hello" and "Goodbye" - Inadvertent Partnerships and Buy-Outs or Exits

First appeared as part of the conference materials for the

26th Annual LLCs, LPs and Partnerships session

"Hello"—Inadvertent Partnerships"