

Incident Response and Breach Disclosure

July 28, 2017

[ 1 ]

The Panel

- |  |                            |
|--|----------------------------|
| • Shawn Fleury                         | Alvarez & Marsal           |
| • Timothy A. Newman                    | Haynes and Boone, LLP      |
| • Jenifer Sarver                       | Sarver Strategies          |
| • Jessica Smith                        | AllClear ID                |
| • Doug Weiner                          | Hewlett Packard Enterprise |
| • Emily Westridge Black(Moderator) | Haynes and Boone, LLP      |

[ 2 ]

Topics

1. Pre-Breach Preparation
2. Incident Response Framework
3. Red Alert: Cyber Attack!
4. Common Hurdles
5. Lessons Learned

[ 3 ]

1. Pre-Breach Preparation

- Perform diligent risk assessments
- Draft contracts with:
  - suitable representations and warranties
  - audit rights
  - required ongoing training
  - strong notice provisions
  - insurance requirements
  - indemnity provisions

[ 4 ]

Find the full text of this and thousands of other resources from leading experts in dozens of legal practice areas in the UT Law CLE eLibrary \(utcle.org/elibrary\)

Title search: Incident Response and Breach Disclosure

Also available as part of the eCourse

Preventing, Detecting, and Responding to a Data Breach: Internal Controls and Compliance

First appeared as part of the conference materials for the 2017 Essential Cybersecurity Law session
"Incident Response and Breach Disclosure"