

PROSSER'S GUIDE
TO
THE COMPTROLLER'S OFFICE
2017 Edition

---

The University of Texas School of Law
65th Annual Taxation Conference

Table of Contents

Foreword

Chapter 1: The Leadership Team & Divisions

Chapter 2: Where You Can Find Us

Chapter 3: What's Going on of Note

Chapter 4: Why You Should Care about the Comptroller's Office

Acknowledgments

FOREWORD

The content of this presentation is solely my own. Though sprinkled with attempts at humor (that may fail), my overall goal is to provide helpful information about the Texas Comptroller of Public Accounts that you can use in the future.

Please direct any questions or attribute any errors to:
Nancy Prosser
Special Counsel to the Deputy Comptroller
nancy.prosser@cpa.texas.gov; 512-463-3723

Chapter 1

The Leadership Team & Divisions

OUR LEADERS

The Comptroller: Glenn Hegar

- Unpretentious & friendly
- Family man
- Smart & hard working
- Talks the talk; walks the walk

Chief of Staff: Lisa Craven

- Legislative guru
- Smart & detail-oriented
- Great sense of humor; fun

Find the full text of this and thousands of other resources from leading experts in dozens of legal practice areas in the UT Law CLE eLibrary \(utcle.org/elibrary\)

Title search: Prosser's Guide to the Comptroller's Office

Also available as part of the eCourse

2017 Taxation eConference

First appeared as part of the conference materials for the 65th Annual Taxation Conference session

"Update from the Texas Comptroller of Public Accounts"