Motion Requirements

Prerequisites of Motion

- Must be in writing
- Present reasonable grounds that if true entitle you to relief
- Must be verified under oath (attached to materials at p.18)

Affidavit

- Attaching to the motion is not sufficient
- Must be sworn to by a person with knowledge of relevant facts
- Must be admitted into evidence
(must get a hearing in every case)

Garcia v. State

Affidavit cannot be attached to motion; trial court could not deny hearing based on possibility that information in affidavit was not based on personal knowledge, affidavits were sufficient to establish prima facie case for new trial.
