Attorney, Texas Lawyers' Assistance Program

Chris Ritter graduated magna cum laude from Baylor University in 1994 with a B.A. Political Science and Philosophy. After law school at the University of Texas School of Law (J.D., 1998), he was a trial lawyer in West Texas for over 15 years until he joined TLAP in 2014. Chris has been recognized by his peers for his legal accomplishments, including being named a Texas Monthly Super Lawyers' Rising Star three times. He has also been active in service to charitable groups and organizations. During his career, his law practice has included being a solo practitioner, an Assistant Criminal District Attorney, and a partner in plaintiff and defense litigation firms. Chris just completed his master's degree in clinical mental health counseling and has gained valuable clinical experience and knowledge in that arena.
