

MGM's Path to Renewable Energy

Cindy Ortega
SVP & Chief Sustainability Officer
January 28, 2019

The University of Texas School of Law
2019 Renewable Energy Law Conference

MGM RESORTS INTERNATIONAL

Cindy Ortega, SVP

- 48,000 Total guest rooms and suites
- 400+ Restaurants
- 81,000 Employees
- 3 Million Sq. ft. of convention space
- Corporate Sustainability Officer and head of MGM's Corporate Sustainability Division
- History of experience and leadership with MGM Resorts, with finance background

MGM RESORTS INTERNATIONAL

Agenda

- Introduction
- MGM's Commitment to Sustainability
- Energy Management
- Renewable Energy

MGM RESORTS INTERNATIONAL

MGM's Approach to Sustainability

Objective: Reduce our controllable emissions and to advance large-scale change.

We concentrate our efforts in three primary areas:

- 1 Green Development
- 2 Responsible Operating Practices
- 3 Climate Leadership

MGM RESORTS INTERNATIONAL

1

Green Development

A Decade of MGM Development by the Numbers

Major Projects

Employment

Capital Investment

- City Center
- MGM National Harbor
- MGM Springfield
- MGM Cotai
- The Park
- T-Mobile Arena

21,000

MGM Resorts employees at these 6 developments

$8 Billion

Invested by MGM Resorts in these 6 developments

MGM RESORTS INTERNATIONAL

1

Green Development

Find the full text of this and thousands of other resources from leading experts in dozens of legal practice areas in the UT Law CLE eLibrary \(utcle.org/elibrary\)

Title search: MGM's Path to Renewable Energy

Also available as part of the eCourse

2019 Renewable Energy Law eConference

First appeared as part of the conference materials for the 2019 Renewable Energy Law session

"Commercial & Industrial Energy Procurement of Renewable Energy"