

Districts of Innovation: Frightening or Freedom?

Amanda Bigbee and Julie Leahy

tcta. Texas Classroom
Teachers Association

What is it?

- Poorly named concept built into law 4 years ago
- Allows for effectively same flexibility afforded to charter schools
- Hamstrings areas that might allow for true innovation
- Does return some local control

Is it Frightening?

- Teachers' rights at risk
- Confused regulatory environment

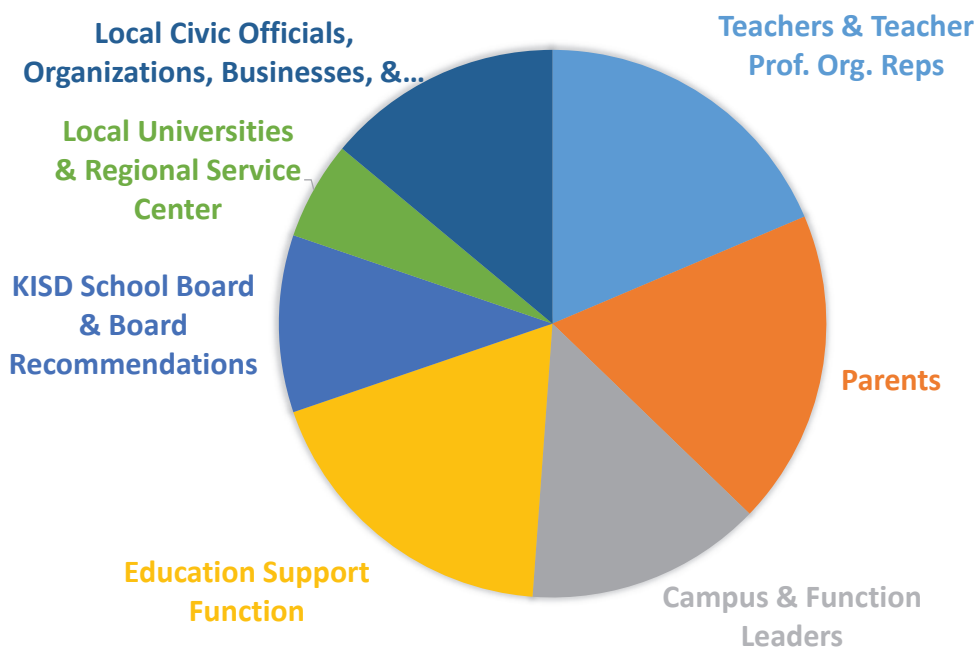

Process with a Purpose: Getting Stakeholders to Buy-In and Building Trust

- Committee makeup
- Super majority voting
- Transparency

Keller ISD DOI Committee Goals:

- Learn about, discuss, and make recommendations related to the laws we might exempt ourselves from in order to better serve our students
- Generate ideas about innovative approaches we could take in our district in the future

Keller ISD DOI Committee Makeup

Find the full text of this and thousands of other resources from leading experts in dozens of legal practice areas in the UT Law CLE eLibrary \(utcle.org/elibrary\)

Title search: Districts of Innovation: Frightening or Freedom?

Also available as part of the eCourse

2019 School Law eConference

First appeared as part of the conference materials for the 34th Annual School Law Conference session

"Districts of Innovation: Frightening or Freedom"